

WELCOME TO THE BOAT INN

in the delightful hamlet of Scarthin Nick

Dave and Lorraine would like to welcome you to The Boat Inn in the hamlet of Scarthin Nick. The name is derived from a passageway in the hillside. Until shortly after the 1st World War, Scarthin Nick was part of Matlock Bath, until it then became part of Cromford. Many of the properties in Cromford were built by Richard Arkwright and the area was a leading mining community.

The Boat Inn consists of 3 properties, originally built in 1772 as a flour merchants. The second building was added in 1810 as a house and the third building was a shop. It was not until 1882 that the three buildings were combined to become a "Beer House" known as The New Inn which it remained until 1825, when it was renamed as The Boat Inn.

Richard Arkwright died in 1792 but left behind a thriving community in Scarthin Nick and Cromford, including The Boat, for which we thank him!
